Barbara has shared this poem which is full of encouragement for those times we feel sad, inadequate or far from God. Malcolm apparently started writing poetry as a teenager - a fact he's managed to keep very quiet about! We thank him for these lovely, helpful words.

The Quiet Time

I went to speak to the Saviour
In the solace of my room,
My aching heart was filled with fear,
As I knelt in the evening gloom.

I spoke of all my worries
As I knelt before the Lord,
He said, 'I love you, peace, be still,
And listen to my word.'

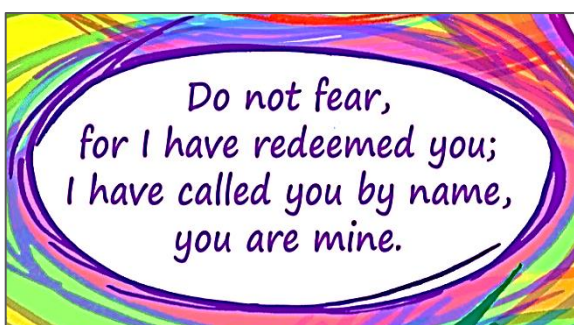

This universe is in my hand,
I gave the earth its frame,
I made the planets, and each one
I call by its own name.

I know each sparrow in its nest,
Each insect on the earth,
But, precious as they are to me,
Of much more is your worth

I know your sorrows, every one,
And silent unshed tears,
But trust in Me and do not fear
The Future's changing years.

Go on your way rejoicing
And place your hand in Mine.
My love will never let you go,
E'en past the end of Time.
